two years, a native of Scotland, but for a long while a resident of this city, died last evening. He was a man of great integrity of character and of won-derful energy. The preliminary trial of Quincey

Bain, charged with the killing of William P. Bain in Sussex county, elicited evidence more favorable to the accused than had been anticipated. It was stated that the deceased had several times threatened to kill him, and had gone in search of him for that supposed purpose. These threats had been reported to Quincey Bain. The fatal meeting on the road was accidental. Quincey Bain had been out hunting, and W. P. Bain was returning from a business trip unarmed. The former twice crossed the road to avoid a meeting, which the latter seemed to seek. The justice sent the case on to the County Court, but admitted the accused to bail in the sum of $1,000. The defence will urge self-defence as the ground for justifiable homicide and acquittal.

The consumer demands wares at the lowest possible figure, and the employer produces these wares to suit this demand if possible. ROBBING A TRAIN.

Victims Stripped of Their Clething - A Woman in a Sheet. An El Paso (Texas) special says: A freight train on the Mexican Central railread in charge of Conductor Narl, bound north, was ditched and robbed at Kilometre, north of San Francisco station, on Tuesday night by a band of sixty Mexican outlaws. The train consisted of seven cars, which were all ditched. The outlaws first robbed all the train hands, then stripped them of their clothing and tied their hands behind them, and in this condition the men walked into San Francisco station. No one, however, was hurt. The cars were broken open, and a large amount of freight was taken by the robbers, in search of whom troops are now scourging the country. It is believed that the outrage was committed by the same band which some time ago robbed a stage in the State of Zacatecas. There were in the stage, besides the driver, three men and one young woman, all belonging to the best families of Chihuahua. The outlaws robbed them of their valuables and every particle of clothing, and in that condition allowed them to proceed in the stage, The robbers, out of consideration for the young woman, gave the people in the stage a sheet, which they used in common as a lap-robe, and thus made

I and my friends became alarmed at the situation and stubbornness of the sore, which seemed to be fast developing sea cancer. I was induced to apply to Dr. A. G. Wollard for treatment. The Lot has a front of 23 feet 7 inches and extends back along the eastern line of Second street 120 feet. The superior location of this property would justify the successful purchaser in pulling down the present improvements and erecting in its stead a business-house, it may be, however, that the successful bufder will prove to be a retired capitalist. In that event the present structure can be renewed to suit his taste and desires.

TERMS: One third cash; the residue in equal payments at six and twelve months. 6 per cent, added title to be retained until the whole purchase-money is paid and a convexance ordered by the Court, or all cash at the option of the purchaser.
